Inspiring Success on the Road to Recovery

For over 26 years Together AZ has published a free monthly publication dedicated to providing the community the latest cutting edge information on addiction recovery, treatment and prevention. Each issue is filled with valuable insights and tools you can use on relationships, personal growth, self discovery, spirituality and resources for the entire family and our community.

We are available at locations such as treatment facilities, out-patient facilities, counseling and therapy offices, government agencies, behavioral health centers, bookstores, coffee houses, universities and colleges, fellowship clubs, hospitals, health food stores, community networking events and where many free publications are found.
